

Tokyo

STRING QUARTET

Japan Benefit Concert

7.30pm, Wednesday 1 June 2011

University Church of St Mary the Virgin, Oxford

"Given the high profile of the performers, it was no surprise that this BBC Radio 3 Lunchtime Concert was a sell-out. The performances were simply sublime. This was music making of the very highest calibre, a pleasure to hear from first to last." Colin Clarke, MusicWeb International

Presenting:

Tokyo

STRING QUARTET

Japan
Benefit
Concert

See www.ticketsoxford.com for details or call 01865305305 to book

Date/Time:

Wednesday 1st June, 7:30 p.m.

Programme:

Haydn: String Quartet Op. 77, No. 2
Szymanowski: String Quartet No. 1, Op. 37
Schumann: String Quartet Op. 41, No. 1

Performers:

Martin Beaver, violin
Kikuei Ikeda, violin
Kazuhide Isomura, viola
Clive Greensmith, cello

Appearing in 100 concerts worldwide each year, the Tokyo String Quartet has added its first-ever Oxford date to raise money for 11 March victims of earthquake and tsunami that devastated the north-east coast of Japan.

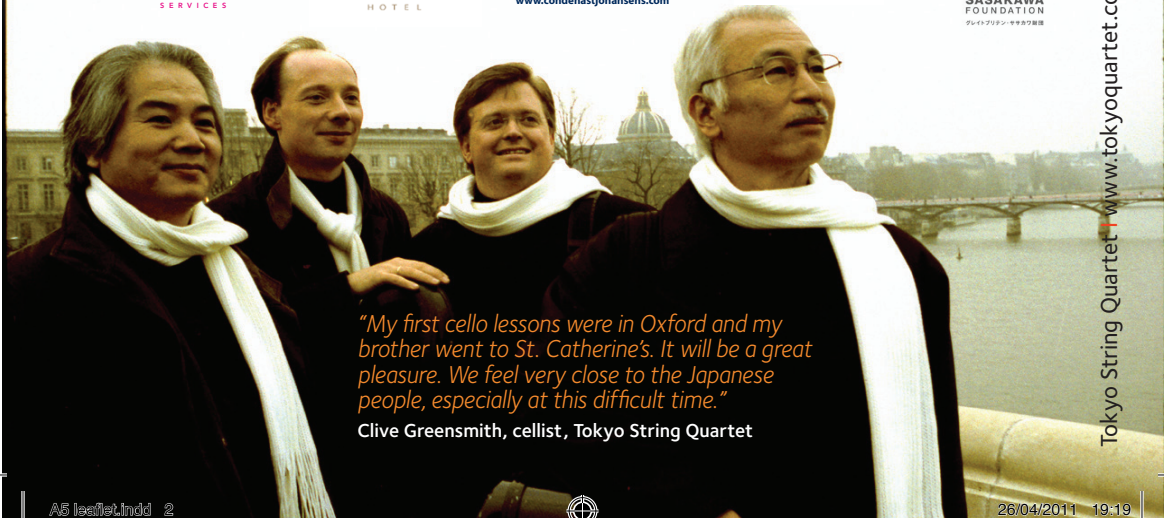

Playing in the historic setting of University Church of St. Mary the Virgin, the quartet will perform captivating masterpieces by Haydn, Szymanowski and Schumann. All proceeds go to the British Red Cross Japan Appeal.

University Church of St. Mary the Virgin, High Street, Oxford

Tickets: £40, £30, £20, £10. Concessions apply.

- * Vaults and Gardens' Café attached to the church will remain open until 7pm on the day.
- * £40 ticket holders will have choice of wine or soft drink upon presentation of ticket at the café.

Our Supporters

"My first cello lessons were in Oxford and my brother went to St. Catherine's. It will be a great pleasure. We feel very close to the Japanese people, especially at this difficult time."

Clive Greensmith, cellist, Tokyo String Quartet

Tokyo String Quartet | www.tokyoquartet.com